Undertaking on Code of Conduct, Harassment, and Academic Honesty

Code of Conduct

Students enrolling in the IIIT-Bangalore & UpGrad's programme assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with the culture and values of IIIT Bangalore. All enrolled students are hereby obliged to abide by this code of conduct.

IIIT Bangalore is committed to fostering a learning environment that is conducive for healthy and constructive learning. Each student's conduct in the online and face-to-face interaction must conform to standards inherently necessary to advance the learning process. Verbal or written conduct in personal interactions, postings, images, and videos that is unwelcome, or inappropriate, or that denigrates or shows hostility or disrespect toward IIIT Bangalore, partner organization(s), fellow students or members of teaching and non-teaching staff from IIITB or partner organizations would constitute breach of discipline and would result in disciplinary action and could be grounds for appropriate action including but not limited to lowering of grade or F grade in the course, and even termination from the programme with no reimbursement of fees.

Harassment

Any discriminatory action based upon (but not limited to) caste, religion, gender, or physical handicap would also be viewed as harassment and would entail disciplinary action.

Academic Dishonesty

Acts of academic dishonesty include: Copying from another's examination work or allowing another to copy from one's own submissions; unpermitted collaboration, plagiarism, revising and resubmitting a quiz or exam for re-grading without the instructor's knowledge and consent; representing as your own work the work of another; giving or receiving aid on an academic assignment under circumstances in which such aid was not permitted; impersonating in online interactions including login using an user id other than your own; inappropriate tampering with online academic systems.

Academic Dishonesty could be grounds for appropriate action including but not limited to F grade in the course, lowering of grade, or even termination from the programme with no reimbursement of fees.

I undertake:

- ✓ That I have understood the code of conduct, policies on anti-harassment and academic honesty.
- ✓ That I shall abide by the rules and regulations of IIIT Bangalore.
- ✓ In the event of my being found guilty of violation of any of the policies stated here, I agree to any penal measures that IIIT-B may impose including my withdrawal from the programme.
